

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Gina Rubel
215-340-0480 / gina@furiarubel.com

Fein, Such, Kahn & Shepard Welcomes Six New Attorneys to Its Ranks
(Parsippany, NJ Law Firm Hires Associates to Focus on Creditors' Rights & Real Estate)

Parsippany, N.J. (May 2010) – New Jersey law firm Fein, Such, Kahn & Shepard, P.C. has hired six new attorneys to focus on litigation issues including creditors' rights and real estate. The firm's new associates include Christopher Koos, Felicia Ekejiuba, Donna Miller, Maxime Beaulieu, Christine Guarneri and Simone Persaud.

"The addition of these talented attorneys reflects the firm's ongoing commitment to providing effective continuity and efficiency in the representation of our clients in the financial services arena in New York and New Jersey," said law firm shareholder, James E. Shepard, Esq. "These associates are knowledgeable and successful advocates in forums ranging from the courtroom, to alternative dispute resolution such as arbitration and mediation, and we are proud to welcome them to the firm."

Christopher Koos focuses his practice in Civil Litigation. He was admitted in the New Jersey Bar Association in 2008. He received his Bachelor of Arts at Rutgers University in 2004 and his law degree from Florida Coastal School of Law in 2008.

Felicia Ekejiuba will be serving within the firm's Creditors' Rights Department and will focus her practice in eviction. She was admitted to the New Jersey State Bar Association in 2006 and the New York State Bar Association in 2007. She received her Bachelor of Arts from Colgate University in Hamilton, N.Y., and her law degree from Seton Hall University in Newark, N.J.

Donna Miller will focus her practice on creditors' rights in New Jersey. Miller was hired to uphold the firm's philosophy of the efficient use of available resources to eliminate/reduce delays associated with the lengthy foreclosure process and to be cognizant of the high costs associated with judicial foreclosure, seeking to minimize the daily expenses to its clients. She was admitted to the New Jersey State Bar Association in 2005 and the Bar Association of the District of Columbia in 2008. Miller graduated from Montclair State University and Rutgers University School of Law in New Jersey.

Maxime Beaulieu has joined our New York foreclosure practice in our Creditor's Rights Department. Beaulieu was admitted to the New Jersey State Bar Association in 2009. He received a Bachelor of Arts from Hofstra University in Long Island, N.Y., and his law degree from Vermont Law School in South Royalton, Vt.

Christina Guarneri will practice in the firm's Creditor's Rights department. Guarneri was admitted to the New Jersey State Bar Association in 2009 and the New York State Bar Association the following year. She obtained her Bachelor of Arts from Rutgers University in New Brunswick, N.J., and her law degree from Pace University Law School in White Plains, N.Y.

Simone Persaud will focus her practice on real estate foreclosure in New Jersey and represent secured creditors in foreclosure actions. She was admitted to the New Jersey and Pennsylvania State Bar associations in 2009 after graduating from Rutgers University and Widener University Law School of Wilmington, Del.

Fein, Such, Kahn & Shepard, P.C. is a general practice law firm serving clients in New Jersey and New York. For more than 25 years the law firm has offered innovative solutions to businesses and individuals in the areas of business planning, civil litigation, creditor representation, foreclosure, bankruptcy and collections, elder law, family law, personal injury, tax, and trusts and estates. The firm's offices are located in Parsippany, N.J., Toms River, N.J., and Chestnut Ridge, N.Y. To learn more, please visit the firm's website at www.feinsuch.com.

#####