Parsippany Business, Estate Planning and Elder Law Attorney Wheatley-Liss Honored by Boy Scouts of America

Parsippany, NJ (November 28, 2011) – Deirdre R. Wheatley-Liss, Esq., shareholder of the Parsippany, New Jersey, law firm of Fein, Such, Kahn & Shepard, P.C., was recently honored at the Boy Scouts of America 2011 Tribute to Women. The honorees are recognized as outstanding women who serve as exemplary role models for area youth through their vocations and avocations.

Winners are identified by a select nominating committee. Through the Boy Scouts of America Tribute to Women Luncheon, funds are raised to support the award winning Youth Protection Training Program the Boy Scouts offer to the community at large to focus on recognizing, resisting and reporting child abuse.

Wheatley-Liss said, “It is humbling to be recognized as a role model for others by such an iconic and cherished organization as the Boy Scouts of America. Professional success revolves around points of Scout Law, including being Helpful, Courteous and Kind. As a business attorney and one who handles estate planning and elder law matters, the issues my clients deal with can be very personal and complex. As a result, my commitment is to provide value-based legal services with a common-sense approach as a legal advisor, so people are empowered, and not intimidated, by the legal system.”

Wheatley-Liss represents individuals and businesses with questions about estate planning, business transactions, tax planning, special needs planning and elder law. Notably, Wheatley-Liss has an advanced legal degree in tax law and is one of less than 50 Certified Elder Law Attorneys in the State of New Jersey, as certified by the American Bar Association approved National Elder Law Foundation. She is the author of the award winning blog New Jersey Estate Planning & Elder Law Blog, one of the earliest legal blogs in New Jersey, located at <http://www.njelderlawestateplanning.com/>.
