Fein, Such, Kahn & Shepard Commits to 11 More Years in Parsippany

(Law firm signs lease with S.K. Realty to stay in Parsippany, New Jersey while accommodating growth from 130 to 252 lawyers and employees regionally)

Parsippany, NJ (December 16, 2009) – Fein, Such, Kahn & Shepard, P.C., recently committed to an 11 year lease with S.K. Realty – remaining in their current Parsippany, New Jersey headquarters. During the course of 2009, the law firm toured numerous office spaces in Parsippany and its neighboring communities while also considering architects' proposals to renovate the present space to accommodate the firm's continued growth. In the last few years the law firm has grown from 130 employees to over 252 and the need for more space is essential.

According to the firm's managing shareholder, James E. Shepard, "A key factor in our decision to renew the lease was to maintain a law office that was convenient for our clients and employees to commute to." He said, "We also need to provide more space, more appealing surroundings, and additional amenities for the convenience of our staff and clients."

In fact, for the second year in a row, the firm was awarded the Alfred P. Sloan Award which acknowledges businesses that welcome flexibility in the workplace.

In order to meet their objectives, the firm has hired architect Chris Albretch who will handle extensive renovations. The renovations are expected to be completed during the summer of 2010.
